A November Morning

Brothers of the Precious Blood, as auxiliaries of the Fathers of the Community, faithfully fulfill the various tasks assigned to them on the campus. As engineer, barber, tailor, electrician, librarian, secretary, infirmarian, tiller of the soil—each does his work joyfully, knowing that he is contributing his bit toward the advancement of St. Joseph's. May God for Whom the Brothers labor bless them abundantly!

Untiring Auxiliaries

Our Sisters

The twelve Sisters at Collegeville, with Sister M. Francisca as directress, are members of the Sisters of the Precious Blood, whose motherhouse is located at Dayton, Ohio, a religious community of more than 700 Sisters. The Community is engaged in teaching and nursing in more than a dozen dioceses of this country, and has the domestic management of six colleges and seminaries and five episcopal residences.

To these good Sisters St. Joseph's is indebted for many years of self-sacrificing work in kitchen, dining rooms and laundry, and for their prayers for the welfare of the college.

MISS HELEN SKINNER

Our Dietitian

The supervision of the preparation of meals at St. Joseph's is in the capable hands of Miss Helen Skinner, a graduate dietitian of Purdue University, who has won the praise and gratitude of Collegeville students for the past three years.

Few schools can boast of the dining room and kitchen facilities that St. Joseph's possesses. Modern in every detail, they turn out, under Miss Skinner's efficient planning, meals unequalled anywhere.

Speckbaugh Memorial Series

Organizations and Activities

The varied activities on St. Joseph's campus, such as dances, dramatics, musical entertainments, clubs and assemblies are regarded as important means of training for sociable living. Each student organization has faculty approval and each has its faculty adviser.

Whether it be a game of cards, pool or pingpong, or a snack at the soda fountain, or just relaxation, the student finds all in Raleigh Hall, the most frequented spot on the campus. There, too, are held the bi-monthly dances which have become so popular at St. Joseph's. Sponsored by the Social Committee of the Student Council, with Mr. George La Mountain as adviser, the dances are small affairs, to be sure, but nonetheless enjoyable, with young ladies from Mundelein, Barat, and St. Xavier Colleges in Chicago, and College of St. Francis in Joliet, as guests.

Corsages and Tuxedos

Chief among the highlights of the social season at St. Joseph's was the Spring Prom, sponsored by the Junior Class. Held May 20th in a completely transformed field house, more than 200 couples, including students and alumni, danced to the melodies of Gay Claridge and his orchestra. At midnight bugles announced the start of the Grand March, led by the Queen of the Prom, Miss Anna Mae Kelleher, of Chicago, and her escort, Mr. Robert Horky, a senior.

Caps and Gowns

Sunday, June 4, was Commencement Day at Collegeville, when the largest class in St. Joseph's history was awarded diplomas and degrees.

Festivities began with the celebration of the baccalaureate High Mass, attended by faculty and graduates in academic robes. At the graduation exercises in the afternoon the seniors and their guests were addressed by the Right Reverend Clarence Issenmann, S.T.D., Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, and an alumnus of St. Joseph's.

EDWARD D. COLLINS
EDITOR

Phase

This edition of PHASE comes to you with the hope that it will serve as a pleasant reminder of the days at St. Joseph's in 1950-51. It was with this in mind that the editor and his staff worked for the past nine months.

The editor is grateful to Father Davitt, yearbook adviser, to the staff, to the faculty and to the student body—to all who by helpful suggestions and cooperation contributed to the publication of this annual.

Campus Newspaper

Every two weeks news of the campus is brought to St. Joe students and to scores of colleges and high schools throughout the country by STUFF, Collegeville's newspaper. STUFF is now in its fourteenth year.

Since its first issue rolled from the presses in 1937, STUFF has afforded its staff of editors and reporters first-hand experience in the gathering of news, reporting and publishing; it has developed in them a sense of responsibility and has trained them in accuracy of thought and expression. The fine experience gained as members of STUFF's staff is attested to by the editors of 1948 and 1949, each of whom went directly from St. Joseph's to responsible positions in the journalistic field.

Rudy Volz and William Nye

Literary Magazine

St. Joseph's Literary Magazine, MEASURE, missing from the campus for two years, returned this spring with David Coady as editor and Father James Birkley, faculty adviser.

MEASURE first appeared in 1937 and has given the students at St. Joseph's an opportunity to express themselves in the form of fiction, drama, and poetry. Literary creations, departmental studies, book reviews, and stories are carefully chosen by a student-editorial staff. The magazine is published twice annually.

Frank Pavalko, Father Birkley, David Coady, James Cramer, Robert Underwood, Daniel Deneau.

Poetry Society

With Mr. Stephen Sanderlin as adviser, the Poetry Society of St. Joseph's was revived on the campus this past year. Monthly meetings enable the members to study our Catholic heritage in poetry and to learn to create poetry of their own.

David Coady is president of the group; John Cummings, vice president; and Gregory Presnail, secretary-treasurer.

Interested in Student Welfare

A link between the college administration and the student body, the Student Council is made up of the presidents of the classes and of the various campus organizations. Under the advisory supervision of the Director of Student Welfare, the Council considers in open session the suggestions and petitions of the students, acts upon them, and then submits its recommendations to the College Administrative Board for final action.

The 1950-51 Council sponsored and supervised, through various committees, the most colorful Homecoming Festival in St. Joseph's history—replete with pep rally, bonfire, parade, barn dance and Homecoming prom. Through the efforts of the Council student-life at Collegeville has been fuller socially. Bi-monthly dances, held in the Rec Hall, to which young ladies of nearby colleges have been invited, have proved very enjoyable.

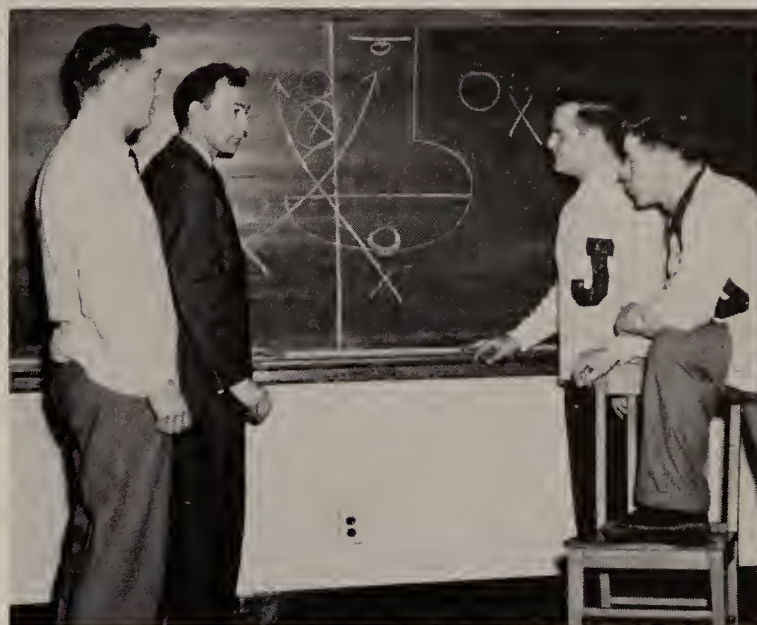

Following a custom of several years standing, keys were awarded the members of the Council at the final Student Convocation of the school year.

With membership restricted to winners of the "J" in athletics, the Monogram Club is primarily a social organization, but its members sincerely desire to promote the interests of St. Joseph's not only in athletics but in all school undertakings. Proof of this is their teamwork on the gridiron, hardwood and diamond, and their ready and generous cooperation in all campus activities.

Each year members of the Monogram Club are honored at a dinner in the college cafeteria. Chief post-prandial speaker is always an outstanding figure in the world of sports. This spring, Cardinal and Purple jackets, of wool and leather, were awarded members of the club at the St. Joe-Lewis game which rang down the curtain on the 1950-51 basketball season.

The Chicago Club, a social organization, was formed four years ago to foster a closer relationship among the students of Chicago and vicinity and the alumni of Cook County, Illinois.

One of the largest groups on the campus, the club held two off-campus dances during the holiday vacations, and took an active part in Parents' Day in May.

The Lake County Club is a social organization, with membership geographically restricted to residents of Lake County, Indiana.

Objectives of the club are: strengthening the ties of friendship formed by members with the student body, faculty and alumni of St. Joseph's; furthering interest in the school, both scholastically and athletically; making prospective students aware of St. Joseph's; and promoting the Alumni Chapter in Lake County.

Highlight on the 1950-51 social calendar was the second annual dance, with music by Mickey Isley and his band, held in East Chicago, January 27, 1951.

Founded in 1938 in honor of St. Albert the Great, renowned scientist and scholar, the Albertus Magnus Society is open to students who are majoring or minoring in the field of the physical sciences. As the only honor society on the campus, its purpose is to foster a medium for the presentation and discussion of scientific topics, to create an opportunity for training in techniques and methods of scientific thought and procedure, and to expand appreciation of all the natural sciences.

Monthly meetings include lectures and demonstrations, guest speakers, and movies of a scientific nature. Early in the second semester the members visited the research laboratories of Swift & Company, Chicago.

This year Robert Hummel, a Junior, was chosen chairman of the Science Commission of the Fort Wayne Region of the NFCCS. To strengthen the bond between the Catholic Colleges in the Region, the Albertus Magnus Society, together with science clubs of these schools, has begun a project of preparing papers and lectures on the peacetime application of atomic energy, to promulgate knowledge of the atom, and to show that while modern science is improving methods of warfare, it never ceases to work for the betterment of the peacetime world.

Science Day Welcomes Visitors

Each year the Albertus Magnus Society sponsors a Science Day Exhibit. Displays, student lectures and demonstrations combine to make the exhibits most profitable. Members have open house in all the science departments in an effort to popularize science and to show its importance in everyday life. For the past three years Science Day and Parents' Day have coincided, thus enabling many parents to see what their sons are doing in the laboratories.

Columbian Players

Emperor Jones

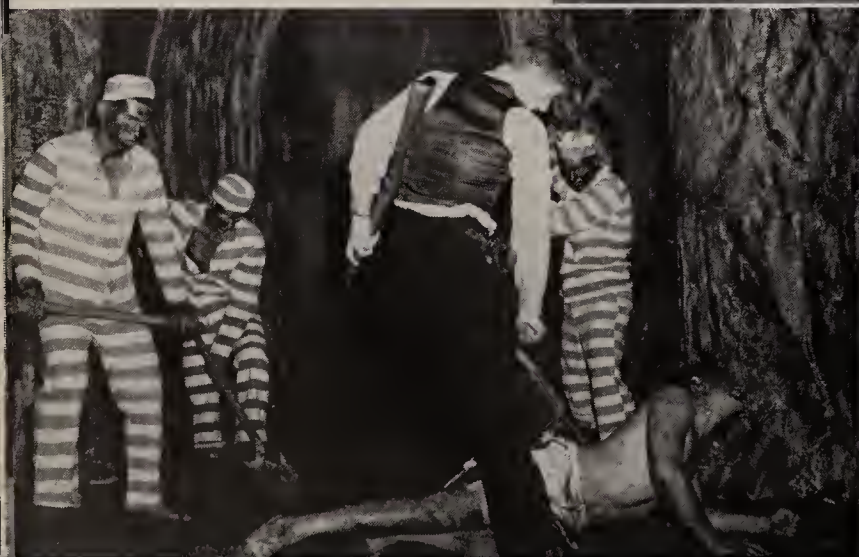

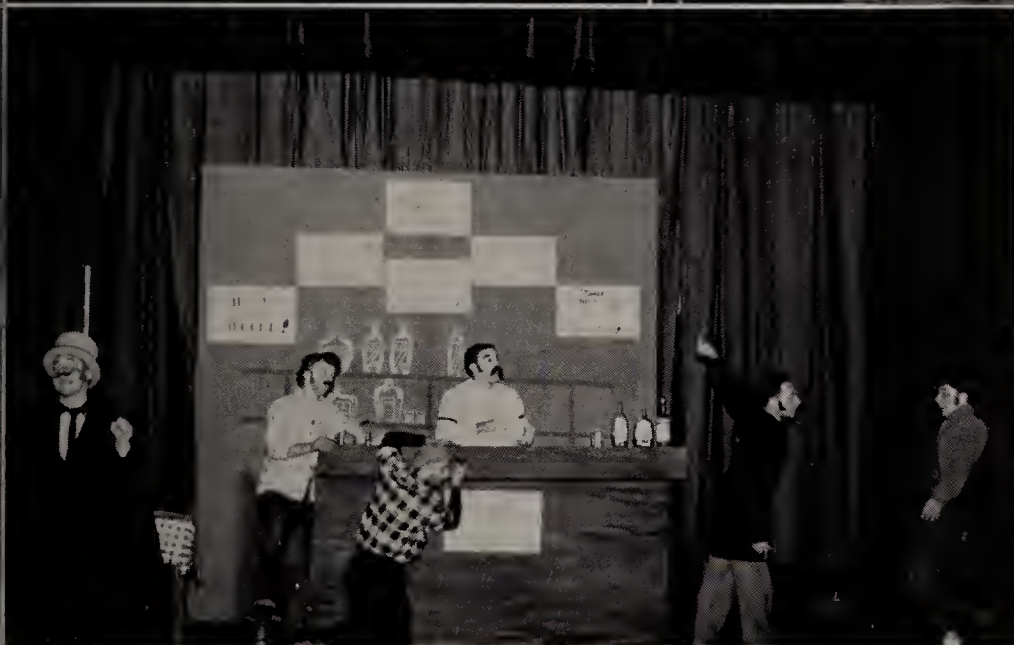

Founded as the Columbian Literary Society in 1892, the Columbian Players afford the student a medium whereby he may cultivate his talents in the field of oratory and dramatics.

Cognizant of the work being done in the Catholic Theatre, the Columbian Players strive to present plays worthy of merit. Within the past year they won the commendation and plaudits of College Theatre goers when they presented the powerful "Emperor Jones," and the 19th century melodrama, "The Drunkard." At the present moment the Players under their moderator-director, Mr. Ralph M. Cappuccilli, are rehearsing Henri Gheon's, "The Comedian," which is slated for production in May.

FATHER HEIMAN, DIRECTOR

Harmony—Their Specialty

St. Joseph's Glee Club is one of the oldest organizations on the campus. The 1950-51 group, under the direction of Father Lawrence Heiman, has successfully carried on the fine traditions set by its predecessors, presenting concerts ranging from the classics to the moderns. Outstanding among the performances presented in the College Theatre this year is the Christmas Cantata, with the Glee Club, Xavier Choir and College Band joining forces to make musical history at St. Joseph's.

PROF. TONNER, DIRECTOR

Music at Social Functions and Games

The College Band offers the music student at St. Joseph's an opportunity for experience and facility in playing publicly for the various games and entertainments during the school year.

Under the able direction of Prof. Paul Tonner, the band played an important role in the presentation of the Christmas Cantata and delighted a large and enthusiastic audience with its annual musicale toward the end of the scholastic year.

St. Joseph's is affiliated with the NFCCS and has the distinction of holding the National Press Commission, one of the thirteen national commissions of student activity. During the past year the National Press Commission inaugurated and successfully carried out on a national scale a Decent Literature Campaign, sponsored a national Catholic Literature drive during Catholic Press Month, and conducted the second annual Student Journalistic Workshop here on the campus.

Early this past winter St. Joseph's was host to the National Executive Council of the NFCCS, composed of the director of the Youth Department of NCWC, the national officers, the president and one delegate from each of the twenty regions in the Federation, and the thirteen national commission chairmen.

The Farley Stamp Club was organized on the campus in 1937 by the Rev. Gilbert F. Esser, who has directed the club from its very inception. During the war years interest in stamps on the campus flagged, but gradually it is being revived. Soon we may expect the F.S.C. to attract a greater number of stamp fans, as it did a decade ago.

Volunteer Mass servers met last September and organized the Don Bosco Club. Patron of the group is St. John Bosco, priest of Turin, Italy, founder of the world-famous Salesians, and ardent friend of youth.

With a membership of more than fifty servers, the club meets every two weeks for instruction and discussion of various phases of the Church's liturgy. A series of talks on the church, sanctuary, altar and vestments has been given by the moderator this past year.

At St. Joseph's the importance of Catholic Action is stressed by the Sanguinist Club. At semi-monthly meetings the members discuss the moral problems faced by young Catholics today, and offer prescriptions for the correction and improvement of everyday habits.

Under the direction of Father Leonard Kostka the Sanguinists endeavor to enhance the spirit of religion on the campus. Yearly they sponsor a novena and several triduums in honor of our Blessed Lady and St. Joseph. Early last fall they arranged for the celebration of an Eastern Rite Mass in the College Chapel. Presently they are engaged in collecting funds for the purchase of a statue of St. Joseph to be erected in a sylvan setting opposite the entrance to the college campus.

Newest organization on the campus is the Geology Club, the purpose of which is to supplement classroom theory with the practical aspects of the geological field by means of field trips, group discussions, movies, and lectures by experts in the field of geology.

The twenty-six charter members of the club heard Dr. Erhard Winkler, professor of geology at Notre Dame University, deliver a lecture on dam sites, witnessed movies of the mining processes of various metals, and took several field trips in Indiana. Highlight of the year's activities will be an extended two-week field trip to the great Northwest, June 11-25.

Shortly after the end of World War II, veterans at St. Joseph's organized the Father Falter Post, named for the Rev. Clement M. Falter, C.P.P.S., former professor, who met death during the American landing in North Africa on November 8, 1942.

Although primarily a social organization, the Post also fosters the spiritual welfare of its members. This year's organization has been prominent in campus activities. Early last fall the Post sponsored a sport's movie, titled, "Highlights of Sports for 1949-50," and introduced the moving flag-raising ceremonies on the campus; each morning and evening two members of the Post have carried out this rite with attention and respect.

The Post has revived the awarding of a sportsmanship trophy to the outstanding athlete in each major sport.

Mr. Robert J. Mahoney addressed the Commerce Club at the December meeting.

Quest for Practical Knowledge

Meeting monthly under the moderatorship of Mr. George Strong, the Commerce Club strives to promote among its members an interest in commerce and industry.

Highlights in the year's club activities were a movie on "Plastics," a lecture by Mr. Robert J. Mahoney, president of the Bendix Local UAW-CIO, and tours of the Kingan Meat Packing Company, Indianapolis, and the Indianapolis Star. On April 26 the annual Commerce Club dinner, at which the first of the "Father Gordon Memorial" awards was presented to the most outstanding senior member of the club, was held in the campus cafeteria.

Two Choirs on Campus

The seminarians of Xavier Hall compose the College Choir which adds solemnity to the liturgy in the College Chapel. Under the direction of Father Lawrence Heiman, the choir maintains the high standards set many years ago at St. Joseph's. Its careful rendition of Gregorian chant and compositions of the old masters and present-day composers of Church Music is always a source of edification and pleasure.

Early last fall a small group from the College Glee Club formed a choir to sing the second High Mass on Sundays. With Father Heiman as director, this group has made a fine beginning; their work augurs well for the future.

For the third successive year the parents of St. Joseph's students came here on the first Sunday in May to enjoy Collegeville's hospitality. The day was marked by tours of the campus and buildings, exhibits by members of the Albertus Magnus Society, addresses by the President and Dean of the College, Litany and Benediction in the College Chapel, and closed with the presentation of "The Comedian" by the Columbian Players.

Homecoming Highlights

Homecoming 1950 surpassed all others in Homecoming history. The celebration got off to a noisy start with the traditional pep rally and bonfire, followed by a carnival and barn dance in the field house.

Homecoming Day itself dawned wet and extremely cold, but weather could not dampen the spirit of the merrymakers. The Homecoming parade from Rensselaer to the football gridiron, in which eight bands and thirteen floats took part, came off on schedule, and the Puma eleven held a strong Ball State team to a 7-7 tie. The day's festivities came to a close at the annual Homecoming Dance, with more than 250 couples stepping out lightly to the music of Bob Doran's orchestra.

Classes

Courses at St. Joseph's are designed to contribute directly to the students' intellectual development—primarily to the acquisition of correct modes of thinking and reading, rather than the mere acquisition of facts. With competition in the world as keen as it is today, students are encouraged to learn in classroom and laboratory the theory and practice of their chosen field that they may leave St. Joseph's prepared to meet the problems of everyday living.

Aspirants for the Priesthood

Father Dreiling with Xavierites who entered St. Charles Seminary, last September.

Xavier Hall is one of the most modern buildings at St. Joseph's, and houses the sixty-three student-seminarians who are preparing for the priesthood in the Society of the Precious Blood. Here they do their freshman and sophomore years of college work before entering St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio.

The Xavierites participate in the activities of the school as members of the Dwenger Mission Unit, the College Choir and the College Band, and engage in the intramural program in touch football and basketball.

Father Kilian Dreiling is director of the students in Xavier Hall. He is assisted in his work by Father Clement Kuhns.

Athletics

St. Joseph's is a member of the Indiana Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and the Midlands Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. A program of intercollegiate games is provided in football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, and tennis, and in addition there is on the campus a well-developed program of intramural sports. In all forms of recreation and physical development the spirit of friendly competition is encouraged and the habit of fair play inculcated.

COACH FETTER

Meet Mr. Fetter

A new football coach took over the generalship of the 1950 Puma grid squad last fall. Mr. Gene Fetter, a native of Ohio and a graduate of Ohio Northern University, replaced Coach Dick Scharf when he left the gridiron to become basketball mentor here.

Fetter was athletic director and football and basketball coach for three years at St. Mary's High, Marion, Ohio. During two of those years he also led the Marion Angels, a professional football team.

At Ohio Northern he earned letters in both basketball and football, and grew into the jobs of football line coach, varsity track coach, and assistant basketball coach.

When his college career was interrupted by several years in the army, he spent two of them coaching football, basketball and track at the Thomasville, Ga., Army Air Base.

Fetter also assisted with football while working for his doctorate in Physical Education at Indiana University in 1949-50.

Ass't Coach Dick Scharf; Athletic Director, Father Roof; Coach Fetter; Line Coach Fred Jones.

A record of one win, one tie, and six losses is the story told by the scorekeeper's pencil about the Puma 1950 football season.

The season opened on September 24, when the Cardinal and Purple travelled to Dubuque to meet the Loras Duhawks, and went down under a 40-6 avalanche. St. Joe's only score was set up by two long passes by Fedorik, and a snap pass from Bidwell to Gavin in the end zone.

In the first home game St. Joe played host to the Green Knights of St. Norbert. A crowd of about 1500 sat in the new Puma stands to watch the Knights roll up a 26-0 win over the home team. Halfback John Ritchay, who accounted for 20 of their points, spearheaded the Knights' attack. The Pumas never advanced beyond the Norbert 35.

Puma line play and spirit, although stiffened, was not enough to overcome Valparaiso's Crusaders at Valpo on October 7. Scene of the fray was a muddy, rain-drenched field, and it was the scampering runs of Crusader Joe Pahr, backed by the overall power of the Valpo team, that defeated the Pumas. Final count: 27-0.

A mark on the "win" side of the score sheets was made Saturday, October 14, when Indiana State visited Collegeville to meet a fighting St. Joe squad. Capt. John Frawley and Norb Hummel were the main cogs in the Puma offensive machine. Frawley scored from the Sycamore two-yard stripe, and capped his own tally by kicking the extra point. Fullback Hummel, the lion of the offense, picked up 74 yards in 11 attempts, smashing the Sycamore defense to shreds. Bidwell likewise captured ground-gaining honors, and Schnieders' punting averaged more than 33 yards.

The Puma camp suffered another defeat at the hands of St. Ambrose on October 22. Before a Dads' Day crowd of about 3,000 on the Collegeville field, the Bees edged out a seven-point lead early in the game, and clung to it tenaciously, winning by a 20-12 score. Quarterback Tom Paonessa copped most of the game's honors, accounting for all SJC points, tossing most of the passes, consistently and effectively gaining ground on wide, sweeping runs and, in the last quarter, booting a soaring 46-yard punt.

A 70-yard march in 16 plays to the Bees' one-foot line set up the first Puma score. Paonessa carried the ball most of the way through holes made by Wenzel, Brosnahan and Noll. Paonessa plunged over for the tally. In the third period a 43-yard gallop by Bidwell set up the next Puma score. Again Paonessa pounded over from the one-yard stripe, but for the second time conversion failed. Meanwhile the Bees scored twice in the first half, and again in the last ten minutes of play. Score: 20-12.

On a freezing, sleety November 4, the Pumas kept their record of undefeated Homecoming games intact when they fought a tough Ball State squad to a 7-7 tie. Trailing 7-0 at the half, St. Joe came back at the start of the third period and marched 50 yards in 10 plays to set up Cliff Beaver's score from the two-yard marker. Frawley was the workhorse of the drive, stabbing through for gains of five, 10, and 19 yards. Bad weather, especially during the second half, frustrated any attempt at a passing offensive.

The next Saturday, November 11, it was Homecoming in reverse for the Cardinal and Purple, when they met the Canterbury Knights at Lebanon, and were held at the small end of a 14-7 score. It was the first collegiate game in Lebanon history, as well as the end of the first undefeated and untied season for Canterbury.

Although St. Joe controlled the ball for about three-fourths of the time, it was a case of bench-lean reserve power. Five Puma thrusts went deep into Canterbury territory, only to be halted by downs, a fumble, and the final gun. Early in the first quarter Canterbury scored on a 66-yard run. Then a blocked punt gave St. Joe the ball on the Knight 15. Canterbury stiffened for five plays, but Frawley knifed across to score on the sixth. Half-time score was 7-7. Another Puma drive was stalled on the Canterbury 10, and the remainder of the third quarter and most of the fourth resolved into a punting duel. A pass from the 42 to Canterbury's Courtney, the state's leading scorer, brought the final Knight score. The game ended with Canterbury on the heavy side of a 14-7 tally, although the Pumas had a 14-4 first down advantage.

Another Homecoming tilt proved to be the Pumas nemesis in the final game of the year at Lockport, Ill., when Lewis College won a 27-12 contest on November 18. Spectacular runs of 75, 88 and 38 yards by Lewis' Joe DuSell meant three Flyer touchdowns and the difference between the two teams. Don Schubert paced the Puma attack, with two long touchdown runs, accounting for all St. Joe points.

A first quarter score by Lewis opened the game, and a Puma attempt to retaliate was nullified shortly afterward. Gerry Wenzel snapped the ball from an end position, thus making him eligible to carry, and then took it from Paonessa and ran 34 yards into the end zone. Officials called back the play, ruling that Quarterback Paonessa did not have sufficient possession of the ball. The half ended with Lewis leading, 7-0.

Late in the third period, DuSell galloped for an 88-yard touchdown run. The main action was held in the final quarter.

Don Schubert started the scoring parade when he intercepted a Flyer pass and scooted 75 yards for the first Puma score. Then, Bidwell intercepted another Lewis aerial attempt, giving the Cardinal and Purple possession on their own 40. Paonessa passed to Schubert, who knifed and pivoted all the way for his second tally, and the Pumas trailed by only a 14-12 margin. St. Joe's rally was halted, however, when two more Flyer touchdowns were squeezed into the period, making the final score 27-12.

Award for Sportsmanship

The Father Falter Sportsmanship Trophy, annually awarded by the Father Falter Post to the athlete showing the best qualities of true sportsmanship, was won this year by Gerry Wenzel, sophomore grid center, who was also named to the Midlands All-Conference Defensive Team. The trophy was presented to Wenzel by Post Commander James Houk between halves of the SJC-St. Ambrose basketball game on February 7.

A new coach, new faces, new opponents, new records—all these were features of the 1950-51 basketball season at Collegeville. Naturally, not all the new records were entered on the credit side of the ledger: there were the little matters of Valparaiso's Jim Ove scoring 40 points against the Pumas for a new Valpo field house record; 107 points piled up by Evansville; and the 34 markers notched by Jim McCabe for Loras for a new St. Joe field house record.

Looming large for the Pumas, however, were the 37 points scored by Jack Wilz against St. Norbert at West De Pere, eclipsing the 1942 achievement of St. Joe's Bernie Hoffman against Valpo. But despite Wilz' stellar play, the Pumas lost 98-66.

Looking back over the entire season, Puma basketball fans will probably pick the late-season brilliance of Capt. George Peters as the highpoint of the campaign. George started the season very slowly. His last year's average of 13 points dwindled to only seven or eight. Perhaps the new responsibility of leading an inexperienced team took its toll; be that as it may, the absence of Peters' one-hand swishers made itself felt in such losses as 107-66, 98-61, and 95-47.

But the last third of the season saw Peters hitting phenomenally from the floor and free-throw line. The combination of deadly one-hand shooting from beyond the free-throw circle with his unstoppable drive in, plus the increased scoring tempo of his teammates, finally boosted his average back to 12.7 points a game.

The season's final game, against Lewis in the Collegeville field house, witnessed an exhibition of student acclaim for a Puma athlete not seen here since before the war. Time and again, Coach Scharf pulled Peters from the line up "for the last time," only to hear the roar from the fans, demanding another look at the finest Puma basketball player since the days of Mosser and Hoffman.

The Pumas won only seven of their 23 games, but they were always trying, always hustling, never gave up. They were a young team—sophomores, such as Bill Elbert, a fine rebounder and floor man; Tom Saxelby, a smooth ball handler; and Boyd Reutebuch, small, speedy guard; youngsters, lacking finesse and experience. The competition afforded them by teams like DePaul, Evansville, Indiana State and Valparaiso was a little too much for them to handle at this early stage.

Then, there was the matter of a new coach, who was forced to experiment more than half the season to find the best combination. He inherited a team which had lost four of last year's first five men, and the toughest schedule since the war. He eventually blended the combination of Peters, Wilz, Kacmar, Barrientos, and Elbert into a tall, speedy, but still inexperienced team which could not hit free throws.

This was a factor which caused real trouble. The Pumas hit only 53% of their season's free throws, when a mark of over 60% is considered only par for the course.

Five seniors, four of whom had never played college ball before, bowed out against Lewis at the close of the season. John Barrientos, speedy little varsity shortstop and ping-pongist extraordinaire, held down a regular guard post for the last half of the season; Bob Doyle, right-fielder on Coach Scharf's diamond squad, speared rebounds from his forward post in most of the games, while Gerry Garren and Bill Taylor saw limited action.

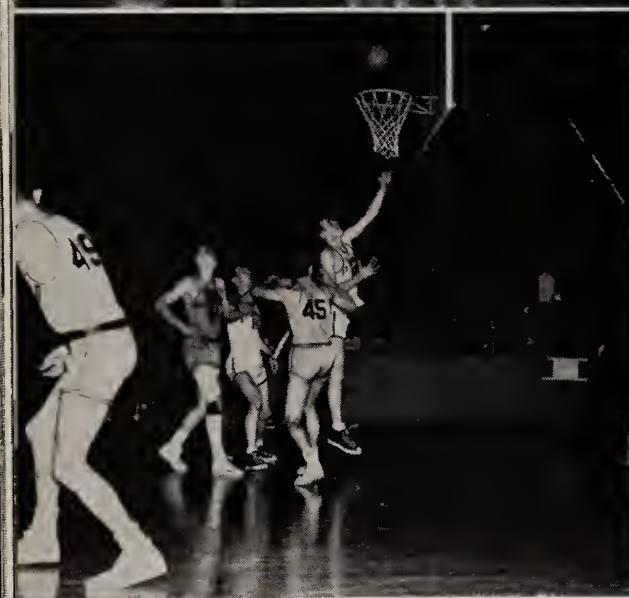

After the first win over a very weak University of Chicago quintet in which every Puma saw action, five straight losses followed: Indiana State, 64-38; Loras, led by Jim McCabe, 69-56; Evansville, with the 107-66 onslaught; a repeat at the hands of Loras, 78-64; and finally St. Ambrose getting in on the spoils, 54-46. This was the period of no scoring by Peters, and the coach's search for the "right combination."

The Christmas holidays saw the first two times during the year that St. Joe was able to win two in succession. St. Norbert fell, 58-52, as Peters snapped out of his slump for the first time, and Wabash was edged in an overtime, 68-65. At this point the Pumas possessed a 3-5 mark, but things steadily worsened, although Peters and an improved team were raising their game scores consistently.

After losing to Butler and beating Lewis, a long road series resulted in a seven-game tumble. Valparaiso, Eastern Illinois, Indiana State, Ball State twice, DePaul, and St. Ambrose each took a turn at picking on our boys, before the hapless Maroons of Chicago U. ran into the Pumas counterattack.

The loss to St. Ambrose by one point in the local field house marked the first appearance of the Pumas as a fairly well-knit basketball team. From that point on to the end of the season, they played well, almost pulled several upsets, and ran up their highest score of the season, 81 points against Lewis in the finale.

The Pumas beat Wabash for a second time after the Chicago game, then lost three, to Valparaiso, Butler, and St. Norbert. The Valpo game was particularly hard-fought, with student backing at a high pitch. This was the one game which all upper classmen in particular wanted to beat, since the Pumas had borne sufferings at the hands of the Crusaders for four long years, and the Collegeville five almost did it, possessing a 57-56 lead with two minutes to go, but Kacmar and Elbert, rebounding superbly all evening, fouled out, and that was that! The final score was 67-59.

Puma Cubs

A look at the freshman basketball team brings a smile to all victory-hungry Puma rooters. The little Pumas lost only two games all season, both losses being avenged by victories.

Four of the first five men hail from the northwest section of Ohio, while the fifth is from Chicago's south side. Frankie "Gremlin" Schroeder and Skip Meyer played on the 1950 Ohio Class B champions from Miller City; Bernie Boff played for a strong Defiance team, and Ralph Wagner sparked Delphos. The Chicago boy, Dick Soich, was a member of St. Rita's Cinderella quintet of 1950, winners of the city lightweight championship.

Many years ago the rabid followers of the Brooklyn Dodgers had a saying which cropped up repeatedly after every dismal season—"Wait'll next year!" We dislike being so unoriginal, but the facts seem to bear out the theory. We have Jack Wilz, Jim Drake, Big Mike Kacmar, Bill Elbert, Tom Saxelby, all with another year's experience, and a batch of the most promising freshman cage stars in many a moon.

Baseball

The season opened on April 18 with a 4-2 victory over Wabash, here — Pumas led all the way — Bohney and Gorman allowed only four hits — Puma fielding faulty — Wabash scored two in ninth on three Puma errors and a single.

Purdue needed a four-run sixth inning to beat the Pumas at Lafayette, April 19 — St. Joe scored two in the first on Moore and Kuhn hits, and three in the fifth on Kuhn's double — Boilermakers sewed up the game in the sixth with four runs on four hits and two costly errors.

Valparaiso handed Pumas their second loss on April 22—Bohney was charged with the loss—Leahy led Puma seven-hit attack with two safeties.

Pumas battled Ball State to a 2-2 tie here, April 29—Game called at end of seventh—Gorman allowed only five hits.

Puma ninth-inning rally availed nothing at Terre Haute, May 2—Sycamore hurler Burns allowed Pumas only three hits in eight innings—State collected 10 hits off Tesmond and benefited by five Puma errors.

Gorman banded for eight hits and five runs in seven innings at Charleston, Ill.—Doubles by Moore and Quinn—Leahy, Kuhn, Bohney, Barrientos and Ziemba rapped out singles.

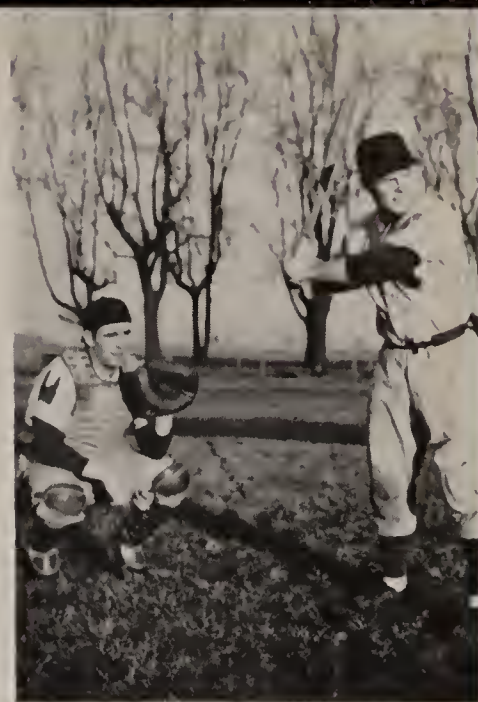

After dropping the opener to Valpo, 12-2, Pumas bounced back in second game of a twin bill to defeat the Crusaders, 12-6—Gorman went entire route in nightcap, scattering eight hits effectively—Pumas piled up 12 runs on 11 hits and eight Valpo errors—Opener was no contest, as Valpo hammered Tesmond for 14 hits.

Three fast double plays defeated Illinois Wesleyan here, May 10—Gorman went entire route—Kuhn iced game in ninth with a base-clearing double.

Two-run homer by Kuhn and shut-out pitching by Norb Hummel in four innings spelled victory for the Pumas, May 12—St. Joe scored three in the first.

St. Joe upset Chicago nine who had previously beaten Notre Dame—Bohney went entire route, allowing only nine scattered Maroon hits.

Pumas avenged earlier loss in 10-inning slugfest—Bohney's 10th inning single loaded bases and decided contest—Doyle homered, Mackin tripled, Quinn doubled—Leahy and Doyle collected three hits each.

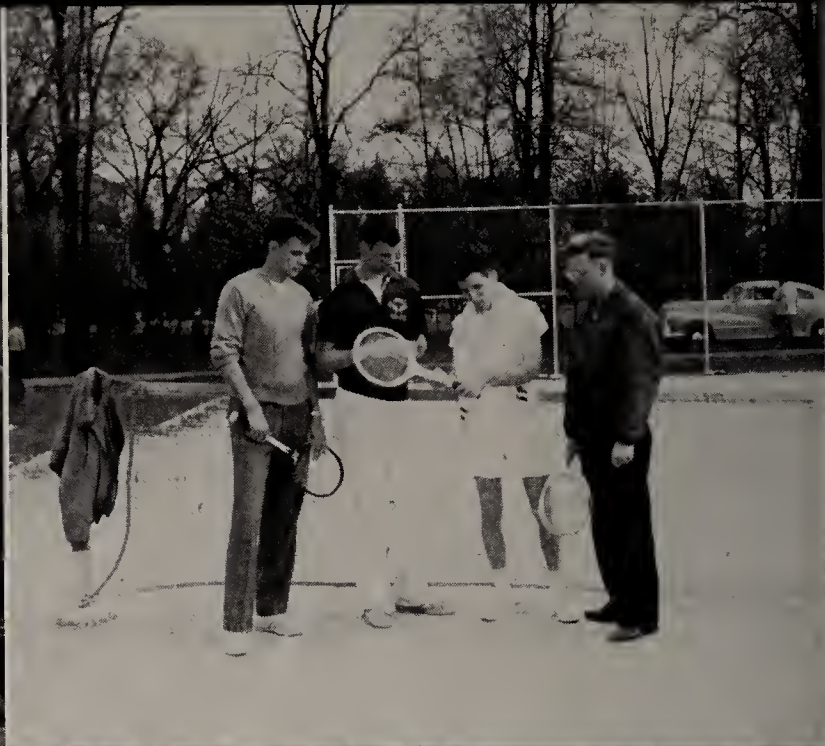

Bohney pitched seven shutout innings before Puma defense weakened in eighth—Maroons score six runs in eighth—first Puma loss on home diamond.

Ninth inning rally gave Pumas two runs and victory over Wabash, May 20—Tesmond, the winning pitcher—In ninth Doyle singled, Reutebuch doubled; then Pinch-hitter Riede singled to score tying and winning runs.

Ball State Teachers came from behind in the seventh on four runs to win at Muncie—Bohney went the distance and allowed eight hits—Four Puma errors costly.

Last game of the 1950 season—Pumas reached peak, showing power at the bat and efficiency in the field—Bohney hit four for six, including a double—Ziemba and Mackin also doubled—Gorman and Tesmond shared pitching honors—Gorman the winner—Puma record for season: eight wins, seven losses.

Intramural Sports

St. Joseph's intramural program was marked by a keen, competitive spirit in every department this past year which saw league play in football, basketball, bowling and ping-pong.

At the end of regular play, Noll Hall edged out Xavier for the inter-hall football trophy, last November. Soon afterward, under the direction of Mr. Fred Jones, intramural director, basketball teams were formed into two leagues. The "A" league with six teams and the "B" league with twelve fought it out for three months, the "Sharpshooters" of the "A" league coming out on top and earning the right to represent St. Joseph's at the extramural meet at St. Norbert's College, West de Pere, Wis., on March 17.

In ping-pong competition Jim Drake and Reid Mackin took the crown in the doubles, while for the fourth consecutive year John Barrientos proved himself the champion in the singles.

Keglers Ed Malone, Bob Braithwaite, John Kaczmarczyk, and Tom Rogers, captained by Joe Kukoy, came out on top in the intramural bowling league, and joined the "Sharpshooters," and ping-pong champions in making the trip for the extramural meet.
